Current Performance Funding Model
Approved March 2013

	Six Indicators
100% of New Funding	The institution maintained/ improved from the baseline in at least 51% of the indicators (i.e. four or more indicators).
90% or 100% of New Funding	The institution maintained/ improved from the baseline in 50% of the indicators (i.e. three indicators). The Board has the option of awarding 90% or 100% of new funding.
90% of New Funding	The institution maintained/ improved from the baseline in less than 51% of the indicators (i.e. improved/ maintained in two or three indicators) and has specific plans for improvement.
0% of New Funding	The institution lacked an agreement, failed to submit a report, or maintained/ improved from the baseline in only one indicator.

Performance Funding Model
Approved April 2011,
Retired March 2013

	Three to Six Goals, 9-18 Indicators
100% of New Funding	Continuous directional improvement in the majority of System Goals AND the majority of other goals.
80% or 100% of New Funding	The institution achieved continuous directional improvement in exactly half of its Goals. The Board has the option of awarding 80% or 100% of new funding.
60% or 80% of New Funding	60%: Continuous directional improvement in only one goal. 80%: Continuous directional improvement in less than the majority of System Goals OR less than the majority of other goals and there were specific plans for improvement.
0% of New Funding	The institution failed to make a good faith effort and efforts to meet goals have been unsatisfactory, the institution lacked an approved agreement, or failed to submit a report.

Performance Funding Model
Approved October 2003,
Retired April 2011

	Three to Six Goals, 9-18 Indicators
100% of New Funding	Continuous directional improvement in the majority of System Goals AND the majority of other goals.
60% or 80% of New Funding	60%: Continuous directional improvement in only one goal. 80%: Continuous directional improvement in less than the majority of System Goals OR less than the majority of other goals and there were specific plans for improvement.
0% of New Funding	The institution failed to make a good faith effort and efforts to meet goals have been unsatisfactory, the institution lacked an approved agreement, or failed to submit a report.