

Barton Community College is located in central Kansas and is one of the state’s leading two year colleges with approximately 15,000 students. Barton is looking to partner with the state's legislators to help the state and the nation train qualified candidates to fill the jobs of tomorrow. The Governor is focusing on concurrent enrollments. Barton is currently growing its concurrent enrollments, and with revenue assistance more students can be served.

