

MILITARY LEAVE OF ABSENCE

Jeremy Dutton, Recruitment/Employment Coordinator, has been accepted to the Marine Corps Officer Candidate School in Quantico, Virginia and he plans to join the USMC Reserve, contingent upon graduation from Officer Candidate School. In accordance with current College policy, the Board of Trustees must approve all military leaves of absence. The President requests approval for military leave for Mr. Dutton from September 22 – November 30, 2007, followed by six months of military training (exact dates unknown at this time.) The College is proud to employ men and women who are dedicated to their service to the United States military.
