

Jessica Perez is a Soprano that started her musical career at the Manuel M. Ponce Conservatory in Aguascalientes, Mexico.

She has appeared in major concerts and productions In Mexico with the Zacatecas Philharmonic Orchestra, Aguascalientes Symphony Orchestra and the Opera Company of Zacatecas.

Miss Perez graduated from Barton Community College on 2014. In 2015 she spent a summer studying at the Luigi

Boccherini Opera Studio in Lucca Italy, where she also performed with local musicians.

She attended Wichita State University and graduated on 2017 with a Bachelor's Degree in Music-Vocal Performance.

While living in Wichita, Miss Perez has been an active performer. She has performed with the Wichita Grand Opera, Central Kansas Concert Opera, Latin Jazz Band Banda Hispanica, Music Theatre, and some local bands and ensembles. Jessica has been the recipient of the Barton County's Got Talent award, The Koch Cultural Trust, The Barbara Rondelli Vocal Competition and most recently, she was The Vieyra Foundation of the Arts annual scholarship winner.

Jessica is also teaching at Damm School of Music in Wichita Kansas, and she is close to graduate with a Master's Degree of Music Education from Wichita State University.