Barton Community College Consortium Agreement Policies:

You must meet the following criteria for Barton to enter into a consortium agreement with another school:

1. You must be actively pursuing a degree or certificate with Barton;
2. You must be enrolled in at least three (3) credit hours at Barton during the term that you are requesting the consortium agreement;
3. You must be concurrently enrolled at another accredited school eligible to participate in Title IV programs.
4. A new consortium agreement must be completed each term.

Barton Community College will determine your eligibility for financial aid, disburse aid, monitor your satisfactory academic progress, maintain records regarding your financial aid, and report information regarding your enrollment and financial aid as required by federal regulations.

Release of Information Consent:

I authorize Barton Community College and the visiting institution to share appropriate information concerning enrollment, academic status, fees, grades, attendance information, and financial aid as is necessary to execute this agreement.

I have been admitted and am actively pursuing a degree at Barton Community College. I declare Barton as the home institution for purposes of financial aid.

I understand that my financial aid at Barton Community College will not be applied to my account until my enrollment information is verified by the host school and that I will only be able to receive financial aid from Barton Community College. I understand that I will be responsible to pay any educational expenses that are accrued at the host school.

Terms and Conditions of this Consortium Agreement

In regard to this agreement, Barton Community College will assume the role of HOME institution and the institution listed below will assume the role of HOST institution.

As the HOME institution, Barton will:

- Be the degree-granting or certificate-granting institution;
- Will determine the student's eligibility for federal financial assistance;
- Will process, calculate, and disburse aid according to the combined enrollment and length of enrollment period;
- Establish the student's cost of attendance including tuition and fees from the combined enrollment;
- Notify the student of Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) and monitor SAP according to Barton's SAP policies;
- Report NSLDS enrollment information for this student through the National Student Clearinghouse;
- Calculate and process the Return of Title IV funds if appropriate, including determination of the withdrawal date and institutional refunds;
- Include the student on FISAP reporting;
- Will give credit for coursework taken at the host institution on the same basis as if Barton provided the coursework;
- Will keep all appropriate and require documentation to support the student's eligibility and basis for award and disbursement, including cash management authorizations; and,
- Confirm student eligibility at the time of disbursement.

The HOST institution will:

- Not disburse federal aid to the consortium student;
- Notify the Home institution if the student withdraws from classes;
- Provide necessary information for aid to be calculated and disbursed by the Home school;
- Certify that the Host institution is eligible to participate in Title IV programs;
- Certify for any study abroad programs there is a contractual agreement with the foreign school; and,
- Provide the Home with information on the student's courses, enrollment status, cost of attendance, enrollment start/end dates, and academic records for SAP evaluation.
