

Quick Checklist

Hiring Guidelines for Regular (Non-temporary) Faculty and Staff Procedure

- A letter of resignation, job transfer acknowledgement letter or college-initiated letter is on file in HR.
- A Blue Team Form has been submitted for the departing employee.
- A salary or hourly rate for the position has been obtained from HR.
- An e-mail has been sent up the chain-of-command through the President or his/her designee to request approval to refill the position
- The job description for the position has been reviewed. If updates were made, the updated job description has been sent to HR for final review and approval.
- An application packet for the position has been created in consultation with HR.
- A job advertisement has been created in consultation with HR.
- A search committee has been chosen consisting of two or more other individuals, including the Assistant Director of HR or his/her designee. The appropriate supervisor or his/her designee will serve as the search committee chair.
- The search committee has reviewed the following documents on the HR web page:
  - Ethics and Confidentiality;
  - Checklist for Reviewing Resumes or Application Forms;
  - Interview Do's and Don'ts;
  - Acceptable and Unacceptable Phrasing of Interview Questions;
  - When Interviewing Persons with Disabilities; and
  - Final Interview Reminders.
- Interview questions have been created and have been approved by the Assistant Director of HR or his/her designee. A selection of interview questions are located on the HR web page.
- A candidate evaluation form has been chosen from the HR web page—can be combined with interview questions to save time by using the combined interview question-candidate evaluation format.
- The Faculty Credential Form has been completed with the appropriate approval(s) if it's a faculty position.

- Candidate interviews have been scheduled.
- Interview notes have been taken during each candidate's interview by all search committee members present.
- Benefit information has been shared by the HR representative during each candidate's interview.
- Each candidate's strengths and weaknesses have been captured using one of the candidate evaluation forms (or combined form if selected) located on the HR web page.
- If a candidate is selected to recommend for hire, the candidate's references have been checked using one of the reference checking forms on the HR web page.
- HR has been contacted to run a criminal background and a motor vehicle report (if applicable) on the selected candidate.
- HR has been contacted to check on the candidate's KPERS status.
  - If the candidate is a KPERS retiree, the salaried/hourly rate offered to the candidate has been reduced by the KPERS Working After Retirement percentage.
- A Personnel Action Form has been submitted to obtain chain-of-command hiring approval.
- A tentative offer of employment has been made to the candidate contingent on board approval.
- If the candidate is a Barton employee working in a regular (non-temporary) position somewhere else at Barton, he or she has submitted a job transfer acknowledgement letter to HR.
- A Blue Team Form has been submitted for the candidate.
- All candidate information has been routed back to HR in the applicant tracking system, including a detailed reason for each of those who were not selected for interview and/or hire.
- All interview notes, candidate evaluations, reference forms or information presented by candidates during his/her interviews along with the Faculty Credential Form (if applicable) have been sent to HR.
- A contract or other payment form (Human Resources Information Form) have been created.
- The candidate was asked to complete an electronic Personal Data Sheet.
- A HR new employee orientation session has been scheduled with HR.