Harvey

written by Mary Chase

"Harvey" is a 1945 Pulitzer Prize-winning play about Elwood P. Dowd, a mild-mannered pleasant man who claims his best friend is a pooka, an Irish folklore creature which is considered to be bringers of both good and bad fortune, in the form of an invisible six-foot-one-and-a-half-inch-tall rabbit.

Performance Dates: October 5, 6, 7, 2018

A production under the Barton Community College Theatre Department

Permission to perform by Dramatists Play Service.
