

Policy: 1165 – Copyright Law

It is the intent of Barton County Community College to comply with all applicable Copyright laws (title 17, U.S. Code) and provisions thereof, including those pertaining to Fair Use, TEACH (Technology, Education and Copyright Harmonization) Act, and the DMCA (Digital Millennium Copyright Act).

Barton Employees may temporarily copy or digitize legally acquired materials for face-to-face- or online instructions as long as the material is not otherwise available for purchase as an instructional or web design tool.

Barton Students meeting the threshold of Barton's Copyright Policy are reminded they still need to adhere to Barton's Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure for attribution of materials. Violation of U.S. Copyright Law is defined as a Criminal Offense (See #10) in procedure 2611 - Student Code of Conduct.

(Approved by President on )