

Survey Management

- Single point of contact to coordinate the College's surveys to know which surveys are approved for distribution and the dates for launching.
- The coordinator function should serve to vet and determine additional college surveys and/or changes in survey tools.
- Need for a centralized function for coordination to eliminate risk of oversaturation and duplication.