

Ellsworth County Medical Center Openings

Interested individuals may apply at www.ewmed.com.

RN:

ECMC is seeking to hire a customer service-focused individual to work PRN as a Registered Nurse in our in-patient unit. Position is PRN. Qualified applicant should have excellent clinical skills, be well-organized, have great customer service skills with preference given to those with prior experience. ECMC is an Equal Opportunity Employer who offers a great working environment with a competitive wage and salary program.

MT / MLT:

A weekend MT or MLT is needed to work at ECMC. Successful candidate will work in an excellent facility with a terrific team of coworkers. ECMC offers competitive wages along with great benefits in a like-new environment. MT / MLT should be a customer service-focused individual with excellent clinical skills. Must be ASCP certified or equivalent. Assists with quality control, quality improvement, infection control, inventory and ordering supplies. Maintains orderliness and cleanliness of work area. Assists with training, performs specimen collection and processing procedures as appropriately trained. ECMC is an EOE.

Night Shift Nursing Supervisor:

ECMC is seeking to hire a customer service-focused individual to work full-time as a Night Shift Supervisor in our inpatient unit. Position is full time. Qualified applicant should have excellent clinical skills, be well-organized, have great customer service skills with preference given to those with prior experience. ECMC is an Equal Opportunity Employer who offers a great working environment with a competitive wage and salary program.