

SUMMER ANIMAL HUSBANDRY INTERNSHIP

Company: Moly Manufacturing, Inc.

Location: Just outside of Hutchinson, KS.

This internship in Animal Husbandry is meant to expose the intern to the many aspects of working with livestock. The internship will serve as both the means to gain experience and as a way of making a career decision. Internship participant will experience hands-on work in livestock handling procedures while maintaining proper environmental conditions for the animals and reporting observations and behavior to the appropriate parties and noting on a daily report sheet. Intern may be required to lift, work in inclement weather, must be dependable and have experience with computers and microsoft office. The Intern is responsible for securing their own housing, transportation, etc.

If interested in this Internship please apply online at www.molyjobs.com