Hoods are generally black, trimmed in velvet in the color of the subject field, and are lined with the colors of the college or university conferring the degree. The correct colors to denote various branches of learning have been established by the Intercollegiate Code.

INTEGRITY AT BARTON

Integrity is integrated into Barton's culture through the use and discussion of six values: Trust, Responsibility, Honesty, Courage, Fairness, and Respect. The values provide context to discuss integrity and how it impacts students' academic and professional lives. In support of the six values, Barton created the role of the Academic Integrity Ambassador. Students selected for this opportunity are empowered to share their voice and story around a specific value. Please join Barton in recognizing the 2022-2024 Academic Integrity Ambassadors:

Jonathan Beers – Trust

Marina Clark – Responsibility

Tionna Caldwell – Respect

Molly Norris – Fairness

Harley Headley – Courage

2023 DISTINGUISHED SERVICE AWARD

The Barton Community College Foundation is honored to announce Earl and Judy Fox as the 2023 recipient of the Distinguished Service Award (DSA). The DSA was created in 1981 to recognize individuals that have shown genuine regard for and performed outstanding service to Barton Community College.

Earl and Judy Fox

Earl and Judy have been a part of the Barton family since 1969 when the college opened. They have had three seats reserved at the gym to watch games and events throughout the years, and over decades of support, they've been to hundreds of basketball games, theatre productions, concerts, and other events.

What started as a love of Cougar sports blossomed into a love of all things Barton, as Judy took classes and completed the elementary education program at the age of 37, saying, "It was a God thing" that she had that chance to go into a field she loved.

After her retirement as a teacher in Great Bend, Judy served with distinction on the Foundation Board of Directors for four terms over 12 years, most recently retiring from the board last year. She is most proud of the scholarships offered to students and the projects the Foundation supports that help leverage support from others and inspire generosity.

"Scholarships from the Foundation are available to everybody. Anyone who wants to go to Barton is eligible for help. We meet students where they are interested and help them achieve their dreams," she said. "I loved all of my time on the board; the dedicated and thoughtful decisions we made truly made a difference in so many lives."

Over the years, they have watched students come and go, seeing that each and every student was welcomed and cared for as family here. "Students are not a number at Barton; they can't get lost. It's not a giant lecture hall where the teacher doesn't know your name," said Earl. He often reports that he is just supporting Judy, but Earl has also been a volunteer and donor to the Foundation for many years.

The Foxes have been staunch supporters of Barton and the Foundation for so long that they can't think of a single activity or any one thing that draws them. The list of favorites goes on: they share stories about Barton, attend events like the Big Benefit Auction, watch the new programs be created and existing programs grow, and see the unique Faculty Mini-Grant projects. Judy has a goal to eventually start an endowment through the Foundation.

"We just love Great Bend. We love Barton. I can't think of any place I'd rather be," she said.

Earl and Judy have lived in Great Bend for 61 years and have a daughter, Cindi, who lives in Pittsburg, three grandchildren, six great-grandchildren, and a son, Kenny, who passed in 1991. Earl is originally from St. John, and Judy is from Casper, Wyo.

Judy's steadfast support of Barton and the Foundation, and Earl's steadfast support of Judy's service, have earned them the distinct honor of receiving the Distinguished Service Award. Throughout the years, Judy and Earl's service has made an indelible mark on programs throughout the college, across our campuses, and in the lives of thousands. The Foundation is honored to recognize them.

He lets me know how to become a better person each and every day. Mike Perry has treated me like one of his own children. He has been the supporter to get me through all my schoolwork and even my bowling career. He is such a great coach. He improved my game and helped me get a scholarship so I can transfer in the fall.
