

Dare to know

Coming-of-Age Comics

Comics depicting the development of a character from youth to adulthood.

A genre which depicts a protagonist's psychological, emotional, and moral growth from lost youth to mature adult. Plots focus on the trials and misfortunes that influence the characters' maturation, as they experience emotional changes, overcome obstacles, and come to understand the world. These character-focused stories explore serious themes, typically over the course of several years. Readers can relate to the protagonist's struggles and successes, as the plot emphasizes dialogue or internal monologue over action, providing insights into the character's thoughts and emotions.

Common Elements

Emotional loss
Physical or metaphorical journey
Conflict
Self-discovery
Friendship

Personal growth
Maturity
Challenges
Beliefs and values
Limitations

Wicked authority figure
Orphans
Misfit
Unrequited love

Graphic Novel Examples

Am I There Yet?: The Loop-de-Loop, Zigzagging Journey to Adulthood (2018) by Mari Andrew
Basil and Oregano (2023) by Melissa Capriglione
Big Ethel Energy (2022) by Keryl Brown Ahmed
Bloom (2013) by Kevin Panetta and Savanna Ganucheau
The Crows (2022) by Anders Fager and Peter Bergting

Four Sisters Volume 2: Hortense (2019) by Cati Baur
Girl on Fire (2022) by Alicia Keys, Andrew Weiner, and Brittney Williams
Jane (2017) by Aline McKenna and Ramon K. Perez
The Kampung Boy (1970) by Lat
Merry-Go-Round (2023) by Sergio Rossi
Nayra and the Djinn (2023) by Iasmin Omar Ata

One Year at Ellsmere (2020) by Faith Erin Hicks	Sunburn (2022) by Andi Watson and Simon Gane
She's Josie (2021) by Frank Doyle	This One Summer (2014) by Mariko Tamaki and Jillian Tamaki
Summer Fires (2022) by Giulia Sagramota
