

Midwest OSHA Education Centers - Consortium

OSHA Training Institute
Barton Community College

MOTEC

- * Midwest OSHA Education Center (Consortium)
- * http://www.osha.gov/dte/edcenters/current_list.html

- * National Safety Council - Greater Omaha Chapter (Lead Organization)
- * Omaha, NE
- * (800) 592-9004
- * www.safenebraska.org

- * Kirkwood Community College Barton Community College
- * Cedar Rapids, IA Great Bend/Grandview Plaza, Kansas
- * (800) 464-6874
- * www.kirkwood.edu/ce

- * Saint Louis University School of Public Health
- * St. Louis, MO
- * (800) 332-8833
- * <http://moec.slu.edu/>

OTI

- * An OSHA approved training facility
- * Provides OSHA numbered approved classes
 - * Over 23 classes currently available
 - * Train-the-Trainer classes
 - * Certificate programs –Certified Safety and Health Official (CSHO)
 - * listed on OSHA's website
- * Nationally Recognized
- * Attend OSHA training meetings

Benefits

- * Nationally recognized
- * Deal directly with OSHA
 - * No hostage fees
 - * Keep all money
- * Schedules published through OSHA and consortium
- * Only one in Kansas
- * Opens doors in industry
- * Both campuses
- * Credit and non-credit classes
- * Revenue driven after start-up

Con's

- * No money from OSHA
- * Added workload (Recordkeeping)
- * Additional personnel (1-2 years)
- * OSHA audits
- * Space (GVP)
- * Limited to Kansas unless granted permission
- * Report to OSHA

COST

- * Time-Personnel/workload (limited over-time to start then growth based)
- * Web-site
- * Sign
- * Brochures
- * Facility Expansion- 2-3 years (based on growth)
- * Equipment- (minimal to start)

Conclusion

- * Nationally recognized
- * Only one in Kansas
- * Potential new revenue
- * Opens business and Industry doors
- * Marketed Nationally
- * Network
- * State wide market